Criteria & Information Pack

The Guernsey Property and Construction Awards 2025

ORGANISED AND ARRANGED BY
Karen Solway

Welcome

The Guernsey Property & Construction awards are now organised by Karen Solway.

Karen has vast experience in event management, both in the corporate and public sectors and in recent years in the charitable sector. 2025 the award categories will have see new categories and criteria.

GOSHA awards will also be part of this years dinner

A lot of hard work goes into arranging the awards and evening so we value support from the industry to make it a continuing success, to showcase the best of what is happening in Guernsey Property and Construction.

We are keen to have as many entries submitted as possible, to ensure we showcase the best of the industry. It's been a tough time for many, there are still many shining examples for us to highlight and celebrate.

There will be an unbiased independent judging panel and of course the excellent standard of entries from you, will showcase the skills and qualities of Guernsey property and construction industry.

The reorganisation of the Awards means that there is a new schedule with the Dinner being held on

Thursday 2nd October 2025 at St Pierre Park

We look forward to welcoming you to another entertaining evening celebrating the achievements of the industry. We will have a different entertainment at the event, and music to finish out the night.

Awards and Judging

General Notes

In this 2025 Awards information pack you will find the criteria against which each individual Award will be judged. In making a nomination for any Award, please consider how the individual, team or project have met the criteria.

This is important for the nominee should the judging panel wish to approach them.

- The nomination period is from Monday 1st May until Monday 31st July, which is the final date by which a project should be practically completed, and the nomination form received.
- Nominations are welcome from all, including the public and peers, and can be made completing the nomination form: www.guernseyconstructionawards.com or by requesting a nomination form/ official entry form from ttdgsy@cwgsy.net
- The official entry form will require the details of how each criteria has been met and this is what the judges will score against. It will be a requirement that all the detail are entered on this form, where text will be limited to 500 words in each criteria, additional information will be accepted as an appendix to this form.
- Photo's will be require for construction categories, initially as part of the appendix, arrangements will be made with each nominee to obtain the photos
- All official entry forms will be forwarded to the Judging Panel on an appropriate form for each category. The judging panel will meet to make their decisions in August-September. A scoring system will be implemented and followed, all judges will all adhere to a high standard. No judge will be allowed to score on any project where there might be a conflict of interest, so judging will be completely impartial.
- Please note the only Award that may be judged outside this process and qualification time is the: Lifetime Achievement Award

Sponsors

Thank you to our kind sponsors, without whom the Awards could not take place.

Charity for 2025

This years chosen charity is Caritas their mission is to restore dignity and foster community for those most vulnerable in Guernsey. As a charity rooted in compassion, our primary goal is to eliminate homelessness and address social exclusion. We understand the profound challenges faced by those who suddenly find themselves without a home due to unforeseen circumstances —whether through job loss, separation, illness, or addiction. In a time of housing scarcity, we strive to ensure that every islander has a safe place to rebuild their lives and regain their sense of self-worth.

Award categories

Rising Star

The future of the property and construction industry in Guernsey is dependent on the development and commitment of new talented individuals in today's businesses.

Therefore, we are seeking to highlight and recognise those whose efforts and abilities exceed expectations and are clearly ambassadors for the industry; encouraging them to go onto even greater achievements in their careers. This is not just apprentices but anyone in early stages across all areas of the industry, be that Property sales, facility management, construction, etc

Remember this is a rising star award so a nominee should be expected to have room to grow and not have already achieved their goals.

In the early stages of their careers (e.g. a trainee, student, apprentice or someone new to the property/ construction industry and reskilling).

We welcome nominations for candidates who are:

- In every sense a team player with a “can do, will do” attitude and an understanding of his/her employer’s vision for their organisation
- Able to evidence high standards of work across a range of products/ projects, under a range of conditions and timescales.
- Able to draw on his/her industry skills and personal attributes successfully to overcome a range of challenges
- Able to demonstrate progression within his/her career, outlining all relevant training undertaken.
